VOL. XXVI. NO. 81 GAINESVILLE, FLORIDA, WEDNESDAY, MAY 12, 1909 TEN CENTS A WEEK

WHISKEY CASES BEFORE CIRCUIT COURT TUESDAY

Edward Parker and Lydia Drake Were Convicted. Davidson-Kelley Case---Other Matters.

Court was called to order at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning, Judge Wills presiding, and other court officials in their respective positions.

Henry Richard and Silas Perkins indicted for murder in first degree, arraigned and pleaded guilty of manslaughter.

Peter Fleming, indicted for grand larceny, arraigned and plead not guilty.

A motion in case of the State vs. L. J. Knight, indicted upon two counts, criminal trespass and larceny, to quash the second count, was denied. Attorney Horatio Davis argued in behalf of the defendant, State Attorney Rivers for the prosecution.

Davidson-Kelley Case.

The case of the State vs. D. M. Davidson and James M. Kelley, charged with the murder of W. C. Sellars, was again called. State announced ready, but Attorney Stripling, for the defense, stated that two or three very important witnesses were still absent, but were expected on the noon train, and the court was requested to continue case until the afternoon session. This request was granted, but the court informed Attorney Stripling that some positive decision must be made at that time.

The case of the State vs. Cliff Atkinson and John Atkinson, entering a railroad depot with intent to commit a misdemeanor, was introduced. Attorney Haile, for the defense, presented an affidavit signed by the defendants that certain important and material witnesses were absent, and difficult to obtain at this time, and asked for continuance. The court refused the request to continue for the term upon the grounds that the affidavit was not sufficient to warrant same. Attorney Haile was instructed to get depositions of witnesses here as soon as possible.

Another Murder Case.

The clerk was instructed to issue subpoenas in the case of Ed Foreman, charged with murder in the first degree.

Lydia Drake, the aged colored woman who was arraigned last week upon a charge of selling liquor and plead not guilty, was again arraigned upon a similar information issued by the State Attorney. The woman entered a plea of not guilty. The last offense is alleged to have occurred Sunday. Lydia was released under bond upon her first arraignment. Subpoenas were issued for the witnesses for the defense in this case by instruction of the court.

Court adjourned until 2 o'clock p. m.

Afternoon Session.

Court convened at 2 o'clock.

The case of the State vs. Davidson and Kelley, murder, was again called, and as some witnesses had not yet arrived, the court granted a continuance, but stated that the case may be called Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and State witnesses discharged till that time.

The case of the State of Florida vs. Edward Parker, charged with selling liquor in a county which had voted against the sale of same, was called. Defendant arraigned, and case went to trial, after jury had been sworn. Four witnesses were examined by the State, and after hearing the evidence the jury retired, and in ten minutes returned a verdict of guilty. Defendant had no attorney, asking questions of the witnesses himself.

Lydia Drake, selling liquor in a county voting against the sale of same, was arraigned. A jury was empanelled and sworn, evidence submitted, and a verdict of guilty as charged returned. This was another case in which defendant had employed no attorney, and endeavored to conduct the case in her own behalf. It proved a rather amusing proceeding, as the defendant and self-appointed "attorney" asked various questions of the witnesses.

David Walker, charged with assault with intent to murder, withdrew plea of not guilty and entered a plea of assault with intent to commit manslaughter.

Will Sparks Arraigned.

The case of the State vs. Will Sparks, colored, about twenty-two years of age, charged with rape upon the person of Russell May Taylor, colored, five years old, was called.

Defendant was arraigned and the following jury was empanelled: John R. Zetrouer, A. E. Wittstock, G. W. Cauthon, J. D. Adamson, S. H. Dempsey, J. A. Cox, G. W. Harrison, E. Baird, W. J. Richardson, J. W. English, A. E. Summers, E. C. McMahan.

A number of witnesses were examined, but the testimony was of such a nature that publication is withheld.

The case was submitted without argument, and the jury, after being out about one hour, returned a verdict of assault with intent to rape. J. R. Zetrouer was foreman of the jury.

Court took a recess until 9 o'clock Wednesday morning.

VERDICT GUILTY IN NAVAL STORES CASE

BUT NAMES OF TWO CORPORATIONS INDICTED OMITTED.

This, With the Exception of Charles J. DeLoach, Who Was Acquitted Under Instructions.

SAVANNAH Ga., May 11.—"Guilty," was the verdict brought in late last night by the jury in the case of the so-called "Turpentine Trust," though peculiarly, the names of the two indicted corporations are omitted, and the verdict applies only to the five individual defendants, E. S. Nash, president of the American Naval Stores Company; Spencer P. Shotter, chairman of its board of directors; George Meade Boardman of New York, its treasurer, and J. F. C. Myers, vice-president of the company, and Carl Moller of Jacksonville, Fla., manager of the company and also Jacksonville manager of the National Transportation and Terminal Company. The sixth defendant, Charles J. DeLoach, was found not guilty at the direction of the court.

A motion for a new trial will be made.

The verdict finds the five individual defendants guilty on the first and second counts of the indictment. The third count was ordered stricken in the early stages of the trial. The first and second counts charge the defendants with conspiring to restrain interstate trade and, second, with conspiring to monopolize interstate trade.

The jury does not mention either of the indicted corporations, the American Naval Stores Company and the National Transportation and Terminal Company.

The surprise the verdict caused in the court room and in Savannah was complete. It was generally believed that a verdict would favor the defense and that if it did not a recommendation to the mercy of the court would be made. The maximum sentence is a fine of $5,000 and a term of one year in prison.

WHITLA KIDNAPPERS GIVEN LIMIT OF LAW

Man Given Life Sentence, His Wife 25 Years---Latter Makes Attempt at Suicide.

MERCER, Pa., May 11.—James H. Boyle was sentenced yesterday to life imprisonment in the penitentiary for the kidnapping of "Billy" Whitla. Mrs. Boyle received a sentence of 25 years with a fine of $5,000 and the costs of the prosecution. Boyle did not create the scene in court he had threatened. Sheriff Chess started with Mr. and Mrs. Boyle for the Western Penitentiary at Pittsburg yesterday afternoon. Before he was taken from here to the penitentiary at Pittsburg James Boyle gave out a statement in part as follows:

"On the morning of between the hours of—Dan Beeble, Jr., was found dead on the sidewalk in front of the Mauser block, East Federal street, Youngstown, and over the prostrate form was Mr. Harry Forker of Sharon, Pa., holding in his right hand a package of letters that was gathered from the sidewalk near the dead body of Mr. Beeble.

Boyle's Hidden Story.

"As he was about to depart from the vicinity he was intercepted by the writer and a man who has since passed to his reward, Mr. Dan Shay, a saloonkeeper of Oak street, Youngstown, O.

"In Mr. Forker's hurry to leave the scene, he failed to find two envelopes that contained four letters. The same were picked up by Mr. Shay.

"The writer and Mr. Shay examined and read the contents of same, which proved beyond a doubt the presence of Mr. Forker there at the time.

"The letters were written by a lady, two from a party in New York State and the other from Cleveland, Ohio."

Boyle then sets forth that he demanded and secured money from Forker, under the threat of disclosing the secrets contained in the letters. He secured, he sets forth, various sums and finally demanded $5,000. Forker, he says, professed inability to secure the money for him, but suggested the kidnapping of "little Willie Whitla."

The Kidnapping Plot.

The statement embraces the following letter, "Bailey" being the assumed name Boyle employed:

"'Friend Bailey: You know that the circumstances and the promise I made you when you left here, but if you are really desperately in need of money as you profess to be, I will outline a little plan which with your co-operation can be very successfully carried out, viz:

"'The abduction of J. P. Whitla's son. I can arrange to have the boy brought to Warren, O due there at 11:18 with escort.'"

There is no signature to the letter.

Resuming, Boyle sets forth the alleged manner of the kidnapping, saying a "party" brought the boy to him at Warren, O., whence he went to Niles, O., to Ashtabula and then to Cleveland. He continues:

"On March 22 I received a letter from Mr. Forker stating that someone had informed Mr. Whitla that they had recognized his boy on March 18 in Niles, O., and that James Boyle of Sharon was with him, also that Mr. Whitla was afraid to divulge the information for fear the boy might come to some harm and telling me to be careful and be on the alert, and that when I received the money to immediately surrender those Youngtown letters, to send same to him, Mr. Forker at Sharon, and on Tuesday, April 23, to return half of the ransom money to him, Mr. Forker, and he would turn over the same to the party who took Willie Whitla to Warren.

Gave Whitla the Letters.

"Upon learning that my name was mentioned in connection with the case I made it a point to meet Mr. Whitla personally in Cleveland on Fifty-third street and St. Clair avenue, showed him the letter that passed between Mr. Forker and myself, also the Youngstown letters, and Mr. Whitla promised that if I would substantiate the truth of the Youngstown letters he would see there would be no prosecution.

"I then surrendered, through Mr. Whitla, all the letters that were in my possession and the world knows the result. I was arrested and convicted and deprived by my own counsel of telling my story on the stand. I informed my wife the boy was brought in order to escape being quarantined in the pest house and we were to be handsomely rewarded for taking care of him.

"This unfortunate woman was duped from start to finish in regard to the boy and I was duped from the moment I let the letters go into Mr. Whitla's possession. As my counsel afterwards informed me, I had nothing to show or to prove, and that it was a matter of veracity—their word against mine. I had given up every scintilla I had and now I am settled for. This story is as true as there is a God above us."

The statement was signed:

"James Boyle, Mercer, Pa., May 10, 1909."

Alexander-Thornton Trouble Bobs Up Again in House

TALLAHASSEE, May 11.—The outcropping of the Alexander-Thornton trouble, the Hilburn incident and the decision to reconsider the Beard disfranchisement measure, yesterday was decidedly lively in the House.

The House had hardly settled down to the day's routine when Mr. Alexander of Volusia arose to a point of personal privilege, and in a burst of oratory stated that he had never risen to a point of personal privilege during his long affiliation with the House, and that he would not do so were it not for a letter written to a Volusia county paper by his colleague, Mr. Thornton, the purpose of which was to hurt him in Volusia. The letter said that he would concede that The Times-Union reporter wrote what he thought was a true account of the Thornton-Alexander affair, which was reproduced in many of the papers of the State.. and "If the bridge proposition had anything to do with leading up to this unfortunate affair, I am not aware of it." The letter also stated that Mr. Alexander had boosted the bridge bill, but had worked secretly against it, saying that the championing of the bill would give him a "send off" in Volusia county, but that he had secured "enough votes in the Senate to kill the bill."

When Mr. Alexander had finished his remarks, Mr. Thornton took the floor, and read a letter from Mr. Hardee of St. Lucie, which stated exactly what Mr. Thornton's letter had said in reference to giving Mr. Alexander a boost in Volusia and the killing of the bill in the Senate.

Mr. Alexander was on his feet to reply, when Mr. Light of Marion cut off discussion by a motion for regular order.

Things were getting hot, and there is no telling what might have happened had Mr. Light kept his seat.

Mr. Cox introduced a resolution suggesting and requesting the gentlemen from Volusia to bury the hatchet at least until they got home.

The resolution was ruled out of order.

Mr. Alexander declared that he would answer in the State press.

Among the most important bills introduced in the Senate was one by Sloan of Lakeland which prohibits the operating of work or freight trains on Sunday except in the case of fruit or other perishable freight.

Young Man Dies as Result of Bicycle Collision

OCALA, May 11.—As a result of a collision while riding a bicycle last Saturday evening, James A. Campbell died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Campbell, at 5:30 o'clock yesterday morning.

After the accident, which occurred late Saturday evening, the young man came down town, and but for walking a little lame, showed no signs of an accident. Upon arriving at home he was taken suddenly ill, and it was found that he was suffering from internal injuries.

Deceased was 19 years of age, and his untimely death is deeply regretted by his many friends here. The sincere sympathy of the community is extended to the bereaved family in their sad affliction.

SENATOR DOLLIVER'S TWO-DAYS' SPEECH

THE IOWAN DIRECTED HOT SHOT TOWARD STAND-PATTERS.

Decision of Supreme Court in Commodities Clause of Rate Bill Another Blow at the Consumer.

WASHINGTON, May 11.—The Republican stand-patters struck a tartar when they undertook to squelch Senator Dolliver of Iowa. Mr. Dolliver persisted in demanding how an increase of the tariff rates was revision downward. He wanted to know why the consumer was to be taxed inordinately on every article made of wool or cotton, why Senator Aldrich had permitted certain New England manufacturers to make the wool and cotton schedules and a dozen other things which it was impossible for the Republicans to answer frankly and which it greatly embarrassed them to have brought to public attention. Throughout a speech lasting the greater part of two days, Mr. Dolliver kept his temper under the most trying circumstances, answered invendo with witticism and turned aside the angry shafts of Mr. Aldrich with jests which won for him the sympathy of the Senate and even the applause of the galleries, although applause is forbidden in the Senate and each time it occurs the presiding officer gravely warns the galleries that if it occurs again he will be obliged to clear them. Senator Aldrich, although hardly daring to charge it outright, plainly intimated that Mr. Dolliver's opposition to the exorbitant schedules which are the Rhode Island Senator's particular pets emanated from the fact that the Iowan was angry because he had not received a place on the Finance Committee and that there was no more worthy reason for his opposition. That any man should have the interests of the ultimate consumer at heart apparently never enters into the calculation of the Rhode Island statesman. Probably the fact that it is generally known that Mr. Dolliver has the sympathies of the President with him in his fight on the exorbitant schedules adds nothing to the comfort of the Rhode Island Senator. The indications all point now to a continuation of the session of Congress until June 15th and possibly later.

The decision of the Supreme Court in the so-called commodities clause of the Railway Rate Bill constitutes another blow at the consumer and a victory for the railroads, although the court upholds the constitutionality of the law. This clause was enacted in order to prevent the outrageous discrimination which the railroads commonly practiced against those who sought to compete with them in any side-line in which they were engaged, especially in the production of coal. Many railroads own extensive coal mines. Where this was the case any private owner of a mine was almost certain to receive an offer of a very moderate price for his mine. If he refused to sell he found himself hampered on every side. The railroad simply could not supply him with cars. His shipments got side-tracked and his coal arrived so late that he broke his contracts and in some instances he was completely undersold by the railroad which could haul its own coal free. Finally, finding himself on the verge of ruin, the private mine owner would give up the fight and sell his mine to the railroad at its own price.

A provision in the commodities clause previded that a railroad not only must not haul its own coal, but it must not haul that of any company in which it was "directly or indirectly interested." The Supreme Court decides that this does not prevent a company from holding stock in a corporation which operates a mine and hauling the coal of that corporation. In other words, under the decision, the railroad need only organize a subsidiary to own the mine and then own the company. The Attorney-General points out that this is a consistent decision as the courts have always held that owning stock in a company does not constitute a legal interest therein. He says, however, that if the law had provided that holding stock must be regarded as having an interest therein within the meaning of the law, the law would have been effective. President Taft will ask Congress to amend the law. The question naturally arises, therefore, why did not the men who framed the law and who were lawyers of known ability so word the law as to accomplish its purpose in the first place? They must have known of the former rulings of the court. Of course no one can answer this question, but the fact that the law as adopted was written by Senator Elkins, who is not only a lawyer of long experience but who owns the greater part of a railroad which, in turn, owns large mines in West Virginia, may point the way toward the solution of this intricate problem. It will be interesting to observe the attitude of Senator Elkins toward the amendment which President Taft will urge.

Whooping Cough.

This is more dangerous disease than is generally presumed. It will be a surprise to many to learn that more deaths result from it than from scarlet fever. Pneumonia often results from it. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been used in many epidemics of whooping cough, and always with the best results. Delbert McKelg of Harlan, Iowa, says of it: "My boy took whooping cough when nine months old. He had it in the winter. I got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy which proved good. I cannot recommend it too highly." For sale by all druggists.

On Inspection Tour.

W. E. Parmenter, L. Evans and Fred Maierfelvt formed a party from Orange Park who arrived in the city yesterday for the purpose of inspecting our roads. Their town has bonded for $5,000 and will use the money to build a hard road to connect with the road from Duval county, covering a distance of about twelve miles, in each direction, from their place. They are very enthusiastic over the good roads subject and believe it will only be a question of a short while before a hard road will be built all along the East Coast, and they will assist in the project by joining on to the Duval road at once.

SEABOARD DEPOT TO BE BUILT AT ONCE

NEW PASSENGER STATION WILL NOW BE ERECTED.

Commission and Railroad Officials Agree Upon Plans and Specifications Already Submitted.

Work will be started on the new passenger station for the Seaboard Air Line at once.

The plans and specifications submitted have been approved by the Railroad Commission and the work ordered, so it will now be only a question of time until the Seaboard will have a building that will meet the requirements of the traveling public and afford some accommodation to the large passenger travel that this company enjoys through this city.

This depot will be provided with all modern improvements and will be a credit to the fast-growing city, and while many want a union passenger station, this will suffice for the wants of the Seaboard for some time to come.

According to population there is no city in the State that can boast of better train service than is now afforded Gainesville, and the completion of the many improvements contemplated will give us a greater prestige among the traveling public.

Last Night's Recital.

The Pianola piano recital given last night at the Electric Theatre by Ludden & Bates S. M. H. of Jacksonville was a success and was highly appreciated by the large audience present.

The Home Beautiful

(Contributed.)

It is a fortunate thing for the American people that their women are at last awakening to a realization of the fact that the vocation of home-maker is one requiring the deepest thought, study and preparation.

Ignorance of the laws of health on the part of well-meaning women is mainly responsible for the burden of disease resting upon us today. This sounds harsh, as many truths must, but it is only through the education of women in the work for which nature intended her that this burden can be lifted. Some of the very women making so brave a fight for temperance are themselves responsible for the drink habit of a loved son. Owing to his mother's ignorance and disregard of food values, he has from fancy been under-nourished at a bountifully spread table of indigestibles, and this, aided by coffee (which should form no part of a child's diet), has created a demand for stimulants. It should become the duty of every Woman's Club to aid in this work.

A "Home Beautiful" can only be where health, cleanliness, beauty and contentment reign. There is no excuse for ignorance upon any of these subjects. The rules are so simple that they can be followed by anyone, anywhere: fresh air, sunlight, wholesome diet, clean surroundings, out-of-door pleasure, clean and bright reading matter.

Discard musty carpets, substitute polished floors and simple furnishings. Make a bon fire of all the dust-catching ornaments, putting in their place bowls of home-grown flowers, whose raising has conferred health and pleasure. Neglect no opportunity for pleasure of the right sort for every member of the family. Children should be taught that the "simple joys of home" are the most satisfying that this life offers. With a simple life and surroundings mothers will find time for this most important work, and how much better it would pay in the end than the time and energy required for the cheap imitation of the course dinner, the elaborate toilet and house decoration by which the woman of moderate means seeks to vie with her wealthy neighbor.

Now that women are becoming thoroughly aroused on the subject of better homes (and that means better people), there is hope that the future generation will have reason to bless instead of condemn us, and that by the education of each and every individual man, woman and child along these lines of home-improvement we will finally have the "Home Beautiful."

PICKETT WILL BUILD IN THE EARLY FALL

ABANDONS IDEA OF REBUILDING LAUNDRY ON MAIN STREET.

Sherman Weaver Undecided as to His Location, But Says Building Will Be Brick.

Owing to the action of the City Council in holding up the building permit of H. A. Pickett, he has decided to defer action in this matter until the early fall, unless he has prospects for rental of the building before that time.

It has been his intention all along to erect a first-class building on these lots, but will wait until the Government building is nearer completion, unless someone contracts with him for a suitable business building prior to that time.

The action of the council has forced S. O. Weaver, proprietor of the Gainesville Steam Laundry, to look elsewhere for a location, and while he has a number in view, he is undecided which he will finally select. He states, however, that his new building will be constructed of brick and will have cement floor and be built especially to accommodate his demands in the laundry business.

The citizens generally will be pleased to learn that this part of the city will be left for first-class buildings.

It is only a question of a short while before this street will probably be paved with vitrified brick, as the leading property owners are desirous that the work be done. J. P. Bauknight, one of the extensive property owners around the square, not only wants to see it all along this street but would be glad to place it around all of his property, which virtually means three corners of the square.

CAN'T LOSE HAIR

Twenty Years From Today a Bald-Headed Man Will Be an Unusual Sight.

One of the most prominent druggists of America made a statement a few weeks ago which has caused a great deal of discussion among scientists in the medical press.

He said: "If the new hair grower, Parisian Sage, increases its sales as it has during the past year, it will be used by nearly every man, woman and child in America within eight years."

"And when Parisian Sage is used almost universally, dandruff will disappear and with its departure baldness, itching scalp, splitting hair and all scalp diseases will follow and twenty years from now a baldhead will be a rarity."

There is only one way to cure dandruff and that is to kill the germs. There is only one hair preparation that will kill the germs, and that is Parisian Sage.

This unusual hair restorer with its record of thousands of cures will grow hair on any head where there is any life left; it is guaranteed by W. M. Johnson to cure dandruff, stop falling hair and itching of the scalp in two weeks, or money back.

It is the most pleasant and invigorating tonic, is not sticky or greasy and is used extensively for ladies of refinement, who desire to have and to keep their hair soft, lustrous and luxuriant.

Only 50 cents for a large bottle at W. M. Johnson's and leading druggists everywhere, and remember when you buy a bottle of Parisian Sage you get more for 50 cents than the makers of ordinary tonics give you.

If it's printed stationery you want the Sun office is the place to get it.

MISS HATTIE ENGLISH MAKES HEAVY GAIN

NOW HOLDS SECOND PLACE IN HER SECTION OF COUNTY.

Candidates in Every District Working Hard, and Great Many Outsiders Are Trading Here.

Yesterday's count showed a handsome gain for Miss Hattie English of Tacoma. She polled a magnificent vote and came near reaching first place in the Eastern and Southern section. Within less than a week she has climbed rapidly, which shows that she will make it interesting for other contestants.

In the Central section, Miss Ledbetter made a handsome gain, but several of the leading candidates are working hard and have promises of great support for the future. The changes in position have been so numerous the past week that it is unsafe to say who will be the leader in another count, for changes are being made with each canvass.

Following is the result of the canvass:

Biliousness and Constipation.

For years I was troubled with biliousness and constipation, which made life miserable for me. My appetite failed me. I lost my usual force and vitality. Pepsin preparations and cathartics only made matters worse. I do not know where I should have been today had I not tried Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. The tablets relieve the ill-feeling at once, strengthen the digestive functions, purify the stomach, liver and blood, helping the system to do its work naturally.—Mrs. Rosa Potts, Birmingham, Ala. These tablets are for sale by all druggists.

R. N. Wilson Wins Tournament.

The final games of tennis were played yesterday afternoon between R. N. Wilson and Langston, Wilson winning 8-6, 6-3. A great deal of interest was shown in these games, and it may be a tournament in doubles can be arranged with the Gainesville Tennis Club.

As a result of yesterday's game Mr. Wilson was declared the champion in singles among the students at the University, and winner of the loving cup offered by Coles & Son, the jewelers.

CATARRH MICROBES

A Dead Microbe Is the Best Microbe.

Hyomei Kills Them All.

Hyomei (pronounced High-o-me) is a killer of catarrh germs, because when you breathe it in, its antiseptic and germiside properties reach every nook and crevice of the mucous membrane from the mouth and nose deep into the lungs.

Hyomei brings the Australian forests of pine and eucalyptus to your home. It is made of the active principles extracted from these trees.

No one who lives in or near these forests suffers from catarrh. No one who breathes in Hyomei, the real forest air of Australia, will have catarrh for long after the treatment starts.

If you want to cure catarrh, croup, bronchitis, coughs, colds, asthma, hay fever, or relieve consumption, try Hyomei, the common-sense cure, the cure that reaches the spot.

A complete Hyomei outfit, including a hard rubber inhaler, costs only $1.00, and extra bottles of Hyomei, if afterwards needed, cost but 50 cents. Guaranteed to cure, or money back. Sold by leading druggists everywhere. Sold and guaranteed in Gainesville by J. W. McCollum & Co.

MI-O-NA
Cures Indigestion

It relieves stomach misery, sour stomach, belching, and cures all stomach disease or money back. Large box of tablets 50 cents. Druggists in all towns.

AN ACT OF JUSTICE.

The Times-Union takes the following view of the attitude of the Legislature relative to the Wailes claim:

"We do not know the merits of the Wailes claim against the State of Florida. We know that Col. Wailes was employed to collect the Indian War claim, and that after years of effort for the collection of this claim, Congress at last passed an act making an appropriation for its payment. The claim has been paid, but we do not know to what extent the efforts of Col. Wailes contributed to the ultimate success in making the collection.

"All this is a matter for proof, and the tribunal for the submission of proofs is a court of the State that can hear testimony given under oath, and make its decision on the merits of the evidence unfettered by any other consideration. The Legislature made a mistake when it refused to open the courts to a consideration of this case, and it may have done a grievous wrong.

"The Legislature made a mistake, for it put itself in the attitude either of doubting the fairness of the Florida judges or the intelligence of the Florida jurors, or else it put itself on record as favoring robbery. This is a dilemma from which the Legislature cannot escape; which horn will it choose? Does it think that Col. Wailes has no just claim against the State, but that he could corrupt a State, but that he could corrupt a Florida judge or deceive a Florida jury and win a judgment to which he is not entitled; or does it wish to take the position of robbing the claimant of his rights?

"We would not like to take either horn of the dilemma, and we hope the Legislature will yet reconsider its action. We are sure the people who elect the Senators and representatives in the Legislature would not have the State repudiate its just debt, and we are equally sure that they have not in a civil action a suspicion of the courts such as the action of the Legislature implies."

WICKERSHAM AND THE TRUSTS.

President Taft's new Attorney-General, in a speech before the New York Bar Association, has outlined the policy of this administration with regard to trusts.

Mr. Wickersham declares that his department will prosecute vigorously all large combinations in restraint of trade, but he materially modifies the effect of this warning when he intimates that he will be scrupulously careful not to institute criminal proceedings in those cases where, in his estimation, there has been no wilful violation of the anti-trust law. This modification has brought about the ears of the Attorney-General serious criticism from the Democratic press, for it is pointed out that it is almost impossible to discover evidence of a wilful intent to disobey the law and therefore his utterance amounts almost to an assurance that he will deal with the trust evil only through civil suits. Experience has demonstrated that civil suits have small terror for the men who organize and perpetuate trusts. They are practically commercial gamblers and compared with the large stakes for which they play the paltry fines imposed in civil suits are a mere bagatelle.

The opinion obviously prevails among leading Democratic editors that Mr. Wickersham will deal with the trust with a solicitude and tenderness begotten of his long experience as a corporation lawyer in New York City.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address,

STATE PRESS COMMENT.

The Only Remedy—Caleb Powers the pardoned Kentuckyian three times sentenced to death for the murder of Goebel, has taken to the lecture platform. There are occasions when lynching is the only adequate defense of society against the criminal.—Tampa Times.

Opportunity—What a poor boy may do in this country is shown in the life of the late P. F. Collier. He arrived in America from Ireland forty years ago with nothing but the clothes he wore. He worked at any honest labor, for a while as carpenter. He died the owner of the widest known magazine in the world and his fortune was estimated at five millions of dollars. The same opportunity is open to American boys in greater or less degree but they will never reach it loafing away their time or spending all they make on frivolity.—Orlando Reporter-Star.

Stensland, the Chicago bank-wrecker who plunged many hundreds of people into poverty and misery and who was responsible for more than one suicide, is to be pardoned if the efforts of 'mistaken' friends prevail. The question naturally arises why should not such a man serve out his sentence? If a man steals a cord of wood, a ton of coal, a ham to keep his family from freezing and starving, and he is caught, he is sentenced to prison and in all probability serves full time. But just as soon as some large defaulter, who has cut a wide swath with wine and women, gets within the meshes of the law every legal artifice is used to have him acquitted and failing in that, steps are at once taken to secure a new trial or obtain a pardon, and too frequent the efforts succeed. Theoretically the law makes no distinction between men, but practically the opposite is often seen and it breeds discontent and socialism.

Sheriff Van Pelt of Escambia has discharged one of his deputies for the latter's proposal to divide a sum of "hush" money which had been offered the deputy in order to stop proceedings against parties charged with selling whiskey without a license. In speaking of the matter to a Pensacola Journal man Sheriff Van Pelt said: "I have never taken a dollar in my life by such means, and I don't propose to start now. I will see to it that the witnesses in this case appear before the court, and that all the evidence possible to get will be secured," for which he is to be commended.

Chamberlain's Liniment.

This is a new preparation and a good one. It is especially valuable as a cure for chronic and muscular rheumatism, and for the relief from pain which it affords in acute inflammatory rheumatism. Those who have used it have invariably spoken of it in the highest terms of praise. Lame back, lame shoulder and stiff neck are due to rheumatism of the muscles, usually brought on by exposure to cold or damp, and are quickly cured by applying this liniment freely and massaging the affected parts. Soreness of the muscles, whether induced by violent exercise or injury, is allayed by this liniment. For sale by all druggists.

rules of the prison would not permit them to see each other again. Mrs. Boyle threw her arms around "Jimmy's" neck and kissed him. She said: "We must take it the best we can." The matron escorted Mrs. Boyle from the room. She burst into tears and asked to be permitted once again to see her husband. The request was granted and she again kissed and embraced Boyle.

When Mrs. Boyle gave her belongings to the matron, she asked permission to keep a small mirror she carried, saying: "I do not want to leave it behind, as that would make me have seven years of bad luck." The mirror was returned to her and she will be allowed to keep it in her cell.

Feared Suicide Effort.

Sheriff Chess said he was glad to get the prisoners out of his custody, as he was afraid they would be successful in their announced intention to commit suicide. The sheriff stated he believed Boyle had intended to kill his wife and then commit suicide with a razor the sheriff found in the kidnapper's tie. Neither prisoner would deny that this was true.

The severity of the sentence imposed upon the pair appalled Mercer where it was pronounced. Both prisoners collapsed in court upon being sentenced and had to be carried from the room. Hardly had they reached their cells when word was given out that the woman had taken poison during the last night and had narrowly escaped death at her own hands, and that a razor had been found concealed in Boyle's clothing.

KEEP THE KIDNEYS WELL

Health is Worth Saving, and Some Gainesville People Know How to Save It.

Many Gainesville people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Sick kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health, but there is no need to suffer nor to remain in danger when all diseases and aches and pains due to weak kidneys can be quickly and permanently cured by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. Here is a Gainesville citizen's recommendation:

Mrs. E. H. Walters, 108 N. Oak avenue, Gainesville, Fla., says: "My kidneys were disordered for some time and I could find nothing that would relieve me. I suffered greatly from headaches and was often so dizzy that I could not stand. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I procured a box and began their use. They acted quickly and it was not long before I received relief. I have no hesitation in giving Doan's Kidney Pills my endorsement."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Queer Cases of Jilts.

A well known novelist was once jilted by a girl who took exception to the hard-earned punishment meted out to one of his fictitious villains. She declared that as he regarded vice with so lenient an eye he must himself be at heart a reprobate and unworthy of true love and that she must request that their acquaintance cease.

An eminent lawyer in his younger days met with a similar mishap. The lady to whom he was engaged, chancing to hear that he had delivered a most skillful though futile speech in defense of an arrant rogue, wrote, saying that she must decline to know one who could thus strive to speciously excuse crime. In return he pleaded the exigencies of the profession, but in vain. The lady was obdurate and soon afterward, by the strange irony of fate, married a man who was ultimately convicted of gross fraud, mainly through the forensic eloquence of her former lover.

The Count of Books.

The publisher shut his eyes.

"Bring me books," he said, "and by the smell alone I'll tell what country each was published in."

He did indeed distinguish in this manner a French, an English and an American book.

"English books have the best smell," he said. "French come next. Our own come last. Our own smell salty. The others smell fresh and sweet. Have a try?"

The skeptical clubmen in their seats, snuffing the books, were soon able in their turn to distinguish them by the odor.—Exchange.

Hoarseness, bronchitis and other throat troubles are quickly cured by Foley's Honey and Tar as it soothes and heals the inflamed throat and bronchial tubes and the most obstinate cough disappears. Insist upon having the genuine Foley's Honey and Tar. J. W. McCollum & Co.

WILD ELEPHANTS.

A Herd's Successful Raid on a Granary In Ceylon.

Some soldiers stationed at an outpost in Ceylon, says a Colombo paper, to protect a granary containing a large quantity of rice were sent off a few miles to quiet some unruly villagers, only two of the party remaining behind. No sooner had the soldiers departed than a herd of wild elephants, which had long been wandering about the neighborhood, appeared in front of the granary. Its walls were of solid brickwork, very thick, and the only opening into the building was in the center of the roof, which was reached by a ladder. On the approach of the elephants the two men clambered up into a lofty banyan tree to escape injury. Screened by the thick foliage though unseen by the elephants, they easily saw all that went on below. The sagacious animals began operations at the corners of the building. Two powerful elephants, after putting forth every effort, but in vain, to make an impression on the building, were forced to retire exhausted. A third came forward, and, applying his tusks as levers, he at length succeeded in dislodging a single brick. An opening once made, others of the herd advanced, and soon an entrance was obtained sufficiently large to admit them. As the whole company could not be accommodated at once, they divided into small groups of three or four. After satisfying themselves they retired and gave place to others until the whole herd, upward of twenty, had made a full meal. By this time a shrill sound was heard from one of the elephants, and those still in the granary rushed out and joined their companions. One of the first divisions, after leaving the building, had acted as sentinel while the others were taking their turn. He had recalled the troops returning from the village and gave the signal for retreat, when the whole herd, flourishing their trunks, moved rapidly into the jungle.

The soldiers found the animals had devoured the greater part of the rice. A ball from a fieldpiece was discharged at them in their retreat, but they only wagged their tails as if in mockery and were soon hidden in the recesses of their native forests.

Do It Now.

Now is the time to get rid of your rheumatism. You can do so by applying Chamberlain's Liniment. Nine cases out of ten are simply muscular rheumatism due to cold or damp, or chronic rheumatism, and yield to the vigorous application of this liniment. Try it. You are certain to be delighted with the quick relief which it affords. Sold by all druggists.

An Author's Initials.

Initials are sometimes the resort of the writer who is anxious to conceal his identity, and a glance through any one of the 700 volumes that comprise the catalogue of the British museum reading room will discover some strange instances. A theological book, entitled "Inquiry Into the Meaning of Demoniacks In the New Testament," is attributed to T. P. A. P. O. A. B. I. C. O. S. Its real author was a certain Arthur Sykes, and the initials reveal his position as "the precentor and prebendary of Alton Borealis in the church at Salisbury."—London Chronicle.

Death Valley.

Death valley is a desert valley in Inyo county, Cal., lying between the Panamint mountains on the west and the Funeral mountains and Grapevine mountains on the east. It is [illegible] long and from four to ten miles wide. It is [illegible] feet below the level of the sea. The name is said to have been given it by a party of emigrants who were overtaken by disaster in crossing it.

DAYS OF THE WEEK.

At One Time They Were Designated Merely by Numbers.

Formerly the days of the week were numbered one, two, three, four, five and six, beginning with the Sabbath. Even now the custom still prevails among certain modern Greeks, the Slavs and the Finns. Many old fashioned and orthodox Quakers, particularly in the north of England, still hold to this custom, which was the common one in the days of the apostles and down to the fourth century as well as usual among the Jews and the Arabs. The orthodox Quakers use the numerical system in preference to the ordinary on the ground that the gods and goddesses, from whom the names were taken, were not of the highest respectability in point of morals.

The week was originally only a convenient quarter of the lunar month; hence it began on Monday, or moon day. The Italians still call Monday the first and Sunday the seventh day of the week. Tuesday is derived from the Norse Tiw, who corresponded to Mars, the god of war, a most disreputable person in the eyes of Quakers. Thursday was Thor's day, Thor being a god warrior who was morally no better than he ought to be. Wednesday, again, was Woden's day, Woden being the god of battle rage. The Romans called this day Mercury's. Friday was supposed to be the luckiest day of the week—for women. It was called after the Norse Frija, the goddess of love, and is the best day for weddings. For the pagan Romans it was also the day of Venus, though the Christian Romans called it the day of ill luck because Christ had been crucified on that day. Saturday was called after Saturn, and Sunday was known to the Christians as resurrection or sun day.

The week of seven days was imported from Alexandria into Greece and into Italy about the time of Christ. The Greeks had previously divided their month into sets of ten days, the Romans into sets of eight days, three and a half sets being equal to one month.—New York World.

Gloom Spread by Book Agents.

"When I was a small boy living in Huntsville, Mo., an early day book agent came up from St. Louis by steamboat and flooded our country with a harrowing volume entitled 'Agnes—The Key to Her Coffin.' Everybody bought the thing and everybody wept over it," remarked a Macon resident. "Its influence descended upon the community like a nightmare. It reeked with shrouds, funerals and graveyards. For a long while 'The Key to Agnes' Coffin' was the sole diversion of certain portions of the populace. They seemed to take a pure and chastened joy in the awful weight of woe that oozed out from between its lids, and it made them feel better. There were not many books in the country in those days, and the sagacious agent had sized the community's taste up about right. The book was supposed to be very consoling to the distressed in that it told of worse troubles than their own."—Macon Republican.

The Dot Over the "i."

The small letter "i" was formerly written without the dot. The dot was introduced in the fourteenth century to distinguish "i" from "e" in hasty and indistinct writing. The letter "i" was originally used where the letter "j" is now employed. The distinction between "i" and "j" was introduced by the Dutch printers at a comparatively recent date, and the "j" was dotted because the "i," from which it was derived, was written with a dot.

Blue Laws.

The name "blue laws" was given to the first collection of laws framed for the government of the New Haven colony. They were published in collective form in 1650, the volume being in a blue cover, which gave rise to the name that has clung to the laws ever since.

CUTICURA CURED CHIEF OF POLICE

Canadian Officer Poisoned by Weeds —Eczema Developed and Legs Became Scaly—Ankles were Very Sore and Itchy — For Weeks He Could Not Wear Shoes.

FREED FROM ITCHING BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

"I have been successfully cured of dry eczema. I was inspecting the removal of noxious weeds, it being part of my duty, from the edge of a river and was constantly in the dust from the weeds. At night I shook out my trousers and cleansed my limbs, but felt a prickly sensation. I paid no attention to it for two years, but I noticed a scum on my legs like fish scales. I could scrape it off, and yet I did not attend to it until it came to be too itchy and sore and began getting two running sores. My ankles were all sore and scabby and I could not wear shoes. I had to use carpet and felt slippers for weeks. I was then on particular police duty and was compelled to be on duty. I got a cake of the Cuticura Soap and some Cuticura Ointment. In less than ten days I could put on my boots and in less than three weeks, though on duty all the time, I was free from the confounded itching. I tell you frankly that Cuticura saved me from what the doctors called a bad leg. Capt. George P. Bliss, Chief of Police, Morris, Manitoba, Mar. 20, 1907, and Sept. 24, 1908."

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF FLORIDA PAPER COMPANY. NOTICE OF INTENTION TO APPLY FOR LETTERS PATENT.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned intend to apply to the Governor of the State of Florida, at Tallahassee, Florida, for Letters Patent incorporating Florida Paper Company under the laws of the State of Florida with and under the following proposed charter, the original of which is now on file in the office of the Secretary of the State of Florida.

B. F. WILLIAMSON,
FRANK H. CHASE,
C. D. DENNIS.

Proposed Charter of Florida Paper Company.

The undersigned hereby associate themselves together for the purpose of becoming incorporated and forming a corporation under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Florida, with and under the following proposed charter:

Article I—The name of this corporation shall be FLORIDA PAPER COMPANY, and its principal place of business shall be Gainesville, Alachua county, Florida. That said company may have such branch offices and other places of business in the State of Florida and in other States and in foreign countries as said corporation shall desire.

Article II—The general nature of the business to be transacted by said corporation shall be the making and manufacturing of pulp and paper and other products from pine and other woods, or other raw materials, and the owning, constructing, operating and maintaining manufacturing plants, and the buying, leasing, acquiring, marketing, selling, conveying and disposing of such pulp and paper and other products and goods manufactured from pine and other woods, and also woods, materials and all kinds of products of pulp, paper and similar materials and supplies, and the business of buying, seeing and dealing in pulp, paper and other manufactured products from pine and other wood, and like materials, goods and chattels and other property and appurtenances and rights, licenses and privileges pertaining to any and all of the above-mentioned business. And for the purpose aforesaid, to buy, sell, hold, mortgage and lease property, real and personal. To receive payment for capital stock in this company in money or in property, labor or services, at a just valuation thereof to be fixed by the stockholders or Board of Directors. To borrow money and secure the same and moneys otherwise owing by it by mortgages, deeds, bonds, notes or other obligations therefor. To make contracts, of any kind whatsoever, for the furtherance of its purposes and businesses, including agreements or contracts between the said corporation and individuals or other corporations. Also to acquire, own, lease, sell and dispose of all property, real and personal, of every nature and description that may be necessary or proper to the conduct of said business or businesses. To buy, sell, pledge, own or acquire stock of stocks in this or any other corporation, and to do any and all things necessary and proper in and incident to the business or businesses aforesaid, or any of them, and to act as brokers and agents in the conduct of like business for others, and to exercise all rights, powers or privileges now or hereafter conferred by law upon corporations organized under the provisions of the law of the State of Florida, authorizing the formation of this corporation.

Article III—The amount of capital stock of this corporation shall be Two Million Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($2,500,000), divided into shares of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) each. All or any of said capital stock of said corporation may be payable in or issued or used for the purpose of property, labor or services at a just valuation thereof, to be fixed by the incorporators or by the Board of Directors at a meeting called for that purpose.

Article IV—The term for which said corporation shall exist shall be ninety-nine (99) years.

Article V.—The officers of said corporation shall be a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary and Treasurer, to be elected by the Board of Directors, and a board of not less than three (3) Directors to be elected by the stockholders. The same person may hold the office of Secretary and Treasurer. Any of the above-named officers may also be elected General Manager by the said Board of Directors.

The officers of the said corporation who shall conduct the business of the corporation until those who shall be elected at the first election shall be qualified are Bailey F. Williamson, President; Frank H. Chase, Vice-President; C. D. Dennis, Secretary and Treasurer, and Bailey F. Williamson, Frank H. Chase and C. D. Dennis as Directors.

Such officers and directors shall be elected on the first Tuesday in February in each year.

Article VI—The highest amount of indebtedness or liability to which said corporation can at any time subject itself is Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000.)

Article VII—The said corporation shall adopt a corporate seal, and may adopt by-laws for the government of its affairs not inconsistent with its articles of incorporation or the laws of the State of Florida, and the said by-laws may be amended or repealed and others adopted from time to time as may be provided in said by-laws.

Article VIII—The names and residences of the incorporators of said corporation and its subscribers to stock thereof, with the number of shares of its capital stock subscribed for by each, are as follows:

B. F. Williamson, Gainesville, Fla., 3,000 shares.

Frank H. Chase, Chicago, Ill., 2,190 shares.

C. D. Dennis, Gainesville, Fla., 10 shares.

State of Florida,
County of Alachua.

Personally appeared before me B. F. Williamson, Frank H. Chase and C. D. Dennis, to me well-known as the persons who executed the foregoing Articles of Incorporation of the Florida Paper Company, and who each severally and duly acknowledged that he executed the same for the purposes therein expressed.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and official seal this 8th day of May, A. D. 1909.

HARVEY P. ROBINSON,
